on adhoc 5% levy sugar allocation of 810 tonnes is also being allotted each month to Gujarat from August 1991 to Sept., 1992.

(c) As mentioned at (a) above, an adhoc increase of 5% in the monthly levy allocations of all States/UTs has been allowed from August, 1991, which will continue till Sept., 1992, when the position would again be reviewed.

(d) As per the information furnished by the Registrar General of India, the population of Gujarat as per 1991 Census is 41,174,343.

(e) and (f) No such request has been received recently. However, further increase in the levy sugar allocations of States/UTs would depend upon the sustained increase in the levels of sugar production.
